

Solution to Study 0027

Please answer true or false to the statements below.

1. Temporary resurrection is to resuscitation; what permanent resurrection is to revival. FALSE
2. A person can experience permanent resurrection without experiencing temporary resurrection. TRUE
3. Ghosts are those who have experienced permanent resurrection. FALSE
4. The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the basis of our salvation. TRUE
5. The resurrection of Jesus Christ proved once and for all that He is the Son of God. TRUE
6. The resurrection of Jesus Christ gives us assurance that if we live as He did on earth, we also shall be resurrected unto eternal life. TRUE
7. The resurrection of the believer in Christ is what takes place when a person becomes born again. FALSE
8. The resurrection of the believer in Christ will take place at the time Jesus establishes His one thousand years of peaceful reign on earth. FALSE
9. After the believer is resurrected permanently, he must appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ, where he is given an opportunity to explain himself. FALSE
10. During the tribulation, people who are born again, but who missed the first rapture, will get another opportunity to be saved and raptured. FALSE
11. The one-thousand-year reign of peace is one in which Jesus Christ will become the President of the United Nations. FALSE
12. All those who die without Christ will be kept in heaven until the final resurrection. FALSE
13. The first resurrection is to the believer who dies in Christ, what the final resurrection is to those who die without Christ. TRUE
14. Between the first and final resurrection, there will be a number of smaller resurrections. FALSE
15. Anybody who tastes of the one thousand peaceful reign of Christ can never be tempted by the devil to reject Jesus Christ. FALSE
16. As believers in Christ are judged, so will unbelievers be judged, but in a different way. TRUE
17. Three permanent resurrections identifiable in scripture are the first fruits of resurrections, the first resurrection, and the final resurrection. TRUE